

Section 6 – Men's Golf

Men's Conference Chair = Chris Winkle, Grand View College

ADC Representative = Greg Hafner, William Penn University

6.1 SCHEDULING

6.1.1 With the exception of the MCC Championship, each institution is responsible for scheduling its own matches.

6.2 FORMAT

6.2.1 The host school for all regular season matches will determine the format of the event

6.3 WEATHER

6.3.1 Events may be shortened, rescheduled or canceled due to weather related issues.

6.4 CONFERENCE STATISTICS AND PLAYER OF THE WEEK

6.4.1 Results for the previous weeks contests, including team and individual results will be submitted to the MCC SID, by 12:00 pm (noon) every Monday during the season.

6.4.2 Golfer of the Week, will be handled via the SID Guidelines (section 2.3)

6.5 AWARDS

6.5.1 Men's Conference All-Tournament Team = Top 5 individuals (72 hole totals)

6.5.2 Men's Conference Tournament Medallist = Individual 72 hole champion

6.5.3 Men's All Conference Team = Coaches vote at end of spring. Top 5 = first team, next 5 = 2nd team

6.5.4 Men's Conference Player of the Year = Coaches vote at end of spring season

6.5.5 Men's Conference Coach of the Year = Coaches vote at end of spring season

6.6 MCC Championship

6.6.1 The MCC Championship will be conducted over 72 holes with 36 played in the fall at a neutral site and 36 played in the spring at the host site.

6.6.2 Location

6.6.2.1 Neutral site (fall) will be recommended (3 sites) by the Coach's Selection Committee in October the year prior to the Tournament. The Commissioner will then negotiate the most favorable situation and set the Location for the meet.

6.6.2.2 Host site (spring) will be set by the host institution with cost and course standards set by the Coaches and approved by the ADC in June the year before the Tournament.

Year: Host School:

2006 William Penn

2007 Grand View

2008 Iowa Wesleyan

2009 St. Ambrose

2010 Ashford

2011 Clarke

2012 Viterbo

2013 Mount Mercy

2014 Waldorf

6.6.3 Date

6.6.3.1 The Conference Tournament will determine the conference team champions, the MCC Championship Medallist and the All-Tournament Team.

6.6.3.2 Format

6.6.3.2.1 Low team score after four 18 hole rounds determines team champion (72 hole total).

6.6.3.2.2 Count low 4 of 5 scores each day for team score.

6.6.3.2.3 The United States Golf Association (USGA) dictates rules of competition.

6.6.3.2.4 The Golf Coaches will create minimum course standards

6.6.3.2.5 The local tournament committee may make amendments as necessary.

6.6.3.2.5.1 The local tournament committee will consist of the PGA Pro of the facility used, the Golf Chair, the Golf Coach of that year's host school.

6.6.3.3 Reporting

6.6.3.3.1 Responsibility of the host school for that specific year.

Section 7 - Women's Golf

Women's Conference Chair = Michael Orfitelli, St. Ambrose University

ADC Representative = Greg Hafner, William Penn University

7.1 SCHEDULING

7.1.1 With the exception of the MCC Championship, each institution is responsible for scheduling its own matches.

7.2 FORMAT

7.2.1 The host school for all regular season matches will determine the format of the event

7.3 WEATHER

7.3.1 Events may be shortened, rescheduled or canceled due to weather related issues.

7.4 CONFERENCE STATISTICS AND PLAYER OF THE WEEK

7.4.1 Results for the previous weeks contests, including team and individual results will be submitted to the MCC SID, by 12:00 pm (noon) every Monday during the season.

7.4.2 Golfer of the Week, will be handled via the SID Guidelines (section 2.3)

7.5 AWARDS

7.5.1 Women's Conference All-Tournament Team = Top 5 individuals (36 hole totals)

7.5.2 Women's Conference Tournament Medallist = Individual 36 hole champion

7.5.3 Women's All Conference Tournament Team = top 5 scorers during Conference Tournament Play are All-Conference Tournament Team

7.5.4 Women's All Conference Tournament Medalist = top scorer during Conference Tournament Play is Tournament Medalist

7.5.5 Women's All Conference Team = Coaches vote at end of spring. Top 5 = first team, next 5 = 2nd team

7.5.6 Women's Conference Player of the Year = Coaches vote at end of spring season

7.5.7 Women's Conference Coach of the Year = Coaches vote at end of spring season

7.6 MCC Championship

7.6.1 The MCC Championship will be conducted over 72 holes with 36 played in the fall at a host site and 36 played in the spring at a neutral host site.

7.6.2 Location

7.6.2.1 Neutral site (spring) will be recommended (3 sites) by the Coach's Selection Committee in August the year prior to the Tournament. The Commissioner will then negotiate the most favorable situation and set the Location for the meet.

7.6.2.2 Host site (fall) will be set by the host institution with cost and course standards set by the Coaches and approved by the ADC in June the year before the Tournament.

Year: Host School:

2008 Clarke

2009 Grand View

2010 Iowa Wesleyan

2011 St. Ambrose

2012 Viterbo

2013 William Penn

2014 Ashford

2015 Mount Mercy

2016 Waldorf

7.6.3 Date - The Conference Tournament will determine the conference team champions, the MCC Championship Medallist and the All-Tournament Team.

7.6.3.1 Format

7.6.3.1.1 Low team score after four 18 hole rounds determines team champion (72 hole total).

7.6.3.1.2 Count low 4 of 6 scores each day for team score.

7.6.3.1.3 The United States Golf Association (USGA) dictates rules of competition.

7.6.3.1.4 The Golf Coaches will create minimum course standards

7.6.3.1.5 The local tournament committee may make amendments as necessary.

7.6.3.1.5.1 The local tournament committee will consist of the PGA Pro of the facility used, the Golf Chair, the Golf Coach of that year's host school.

7.6.3.2 Reporting

7.6.3.2.1 Responsibility of the host school for that specific year.